SOCIAL ACTION

November Donation Opportunities!

Please donate CANNED FOODS and CLEANING SUPPLIES, including bleach and wipes, for the residents of Sand Branch, TX, an unincorporated community, a few miles southeast of Dallas. This small, poor, largely African American community has been without running water for decades.

Please donate BOOKS for our Little Free Library located at Literacy Achieves in Dallas. Literacy Achieves helps equip non-English speaking adults and their young children with English literacy and life skills to promote self-sufficiency and well-being.

ONGOING! Shearith continues to help the Marom-Kampala Jewish Community in Uganda. Currently, we're raising money to help 18 students in the community who can't go to school in-person because of Covid. These students need the proper supplies so they can learn at home, including laptops, headsets, a personal wi-fi connection, writing notebooks, and other learning materials.

Please donate at: bit.ly/Shearith-Uganda

KLEI KODESH CLASSES

RABBI ARI
SUNSHINE
Understanding Faith and Its Complexities
Six Wednesdays Beginning
November 3 | 7 pm
Sardas Beit Midrash and Zoom

November 3: Pathways to Faith

Explore how the social, political, economic, moral, and religious, beliefs people hold fundamentally represent who they are.

November 10: Faith, Trust, and Risk

Faith is a choice people make. What form does it take?

November 17: Faith and Knowledge

What does it mean to believe if we can't know? Examine three approaches to the gap between faith and knowledge.

December 1: Argument and Submission

In Abraham's encounters with God, Jewish tradition suggests that God does not only expect submission but also debate and argumentation. Explore the legacy this raises.

December 8: Intimacy and Distance

What is the role of doubt in a relationship with God? How is faith about process and not only conclusions? Explore how doubt is actually part and parcel of a dynamic life of faith.

December 15: Faith and Ethics

Tensions between faith and ethics can lead some to reject faith: Does belief in God lead us to live a more ethical life or does it undermine one's ethical commitments?

Class based on Foundations for a Thoughtful Judaism curriculum from the Shalom Hartman Institute.

To sign-up, email Theresa Hurt at thurt@shearith.org

Tuesdays with Tanakh

2nd and 4th Tuesdays | 1 - 2:30 pm

Study session on 1 Chronicles.

RSVP to Theresa Hurt at thurt@shearith.org

RABBI SHIRA
WALLACH
Women's Torah Study
Wednesdays | 12 pm

Sardas Beit Midrash, Zoom
How did the rabbis transform ritual and social realities as they reinterpreted the Torah? More specifically, how did they use their hermeneutical power to redeem the role of women in both religious and domestic settings? Join us as we study Dr. Judith Hauptman's Rereading the Rabbis: A Woman's Voice, in exploration of a feminist read of Jewish tradition.
RSVP to Sarah Katz at skatz@shearith.org

RABBI ADAM ROFFMAN
Thursdays with the Rabbis

1st and 3rd Thursdays
Sardas Beit Midrash, Zoom
The sensational 18th century Hasidic revolution in Jewish thought generated excitement and great controversy. It still holds tremendous power for modern Jews seeking a more emotional, spiritual, and joyful connection with God and Torah. Join this fascinating tour of the great Hasidic masters' works.
RSVP to Theresa Hurt at thurt@shearith.org

AVI MITZNER
Avot with Avi
Tuesdays after Morning
Minyan

Fonberg Family Chapel, Zoom
Avot—commonly known as The Ethics of the Fathers is correctly translated as The Fathers. What if, rather than presenting a coherent system of ethical living (spoiler: it doesn't), its true purpose was to give us insight into the founders of Rabbinic Judaism, the issues they dealt with personally, and in trying to reshape Judaism after the destruction of the Temple? Join Avi for 15 minutes, every Tuesday after morning minyan, as we look at the stories of their lives and how those stories informed their maxims handed down to us in Avot.

LIFELONG LEARNING & PROGRAMS

Open to all!

We are looking for volunteers for our annual Mishloach Manot Committee to help decide on the theme and items for the Mishloach Manot bags, help recruit volunteers, and assist with assembly of bags and deliveries! Meetings will be 1 to 2 times a month, starting in mid-December through the first week of March! Contact Katie Babin at kbabin@shearith.org

Social Action will collect warm clothes. Adult clothing will be donated to the Bridge Homeless Shelter and children's clothing will be donated to Literacy Achieves. Additionally, the Sisterhood Yarn Yentas will donate items they knit.
