

April 2017

Dear Weitzman Family Religious School Parents,

Welcome to the 2017 – 2018 school year! The Weitzman Family Religious School serves the Jewish educational needs of the children of Congregation Shearith Israel in Kindergarten through High School. The aim of the Weitzman Family Religious School is to nurture the development of engaged Jewish souls in the context of a loving community. This is achieved by creating an environment of connection where learning occurs through all of the senses and dynamic teaching.

WFRS students explore, discover, and expand their Jewish identity and community involvement by living a meaningful Jewish life, learning about Jewish values and customs, and loving their knowledge-filled Jewish mindset.

Early bird tuition discount is open until May 30, 2017. The registration packet and fee must be submitted before May 30, 2017 to qualify for the discount.

Finally, we look forward to celebrating the 2016 - 2017 school year at our End of Year Shabbaton on Friday, May 19th at 6 p.m. in Beck Sanctuary. Kindergarten through 6th Grade will lead the Friday night service, followed by a complimentary dinner for religious school families and prospective religious school families. Online registration is required so we can plan the evening appropriately. A big thank you to our SiSterhood for sponsoring the kid-friendly dessert bar.

B'Ahava (with love),

Sarah Lipinsky
